About Workshop

The new era has now announced new Global dimensions for women in developed and developing countries. It has contributed greatly in making the commemoration a relying point to build support for women's rights and strong participation in the political and economic arenas. Moreover, it is a time to reflect on progress made to call for change, to celebrate acts of courage and determination by ordinary women who have played an extraordinary role in the history of their Countries and Communities. We are highlighting the importance of achieving equality for women and girls not simply because it is a matter of fairness and fundamental human rights, but because progress in so many other areas depends on it, Countries with more gender equality have better economic growth, Companies with women leader perform better, peace agreement that include women are more durable, Parliament with more women enact more legislation on social issues such as Health, Education, Anti-Discrimination and child support etc. Most importantly to acknowledge the unconditional and priceless work of household women without their support, no member of the house can even dream to act independently and visualize his/her individuality/existence. United Nations Conventions on the Elimination of all form of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW) explains that despite the existence of other instruments, Women still do not have equal rights with men. It appeared to be very effective to save women's right in society but the year 2018 also witnessed several instances of women harassment in various forms. It's not about giving upper hand and superior position to women but to make a perfect balance between the two pillars of the Society i.e. Men and Women. Their roles, duties and rights and complimentary and supplementary towards each other, if one of the pillars is weak, the other cannot bear the burden of the Society and the whole structure shall demolish. In this concern, Gender Jurisprudence is now ordering of the Society to emancipate and liberate women from the shackles of Ancient Law. Traditions and Customs whereby the new claims, interests and needs of the women are promoted and readjusted through law with men folk on a footing of equality, dignity and non- exploitation. “This year on the occasion of 10th foundation year Shoolini University celebrates the day respecting the weak and vulnerable section of the society.”
