Our courses are academically rigorous, informed by the latest research. Courses are taught by dedicated, efficient and industrious faculty and a cadre of intellects that includes respected judges and experienced practitioners. We work with a wide variety of groups including the legal profession, policy makers, research bodies and organizations. This reflects our strength in many fields of legal and socio legal research and this gives our students the opportunity to interact with internationally respected scholars. Our programmes will prepare students for a career in the legal profession and beyond. The curriculum has been designed to provide with a strong foundation in the core subjects coupled with opportunities to pursue optional courses in areas of undergraduates choosing.

ABOUT KFCRI

Kovise Foundation Conflict Resolution International (KFCRI) is a first of its kind institution. KFCRI provides accreditation in all aspects of ADR Practice and doubles as an administrative Centre to effectively manage Dispute Resolution mechanisms, which is used by clients worldwide. KFCRI was established in the year 2016, under the aegis of Kovise Foundation. The objectives of KFCRI are To disseminate the required Knowledge and to sanction the Research and Development of Conflict Resolutions. To facilitate peace and economic growth, with effective resolution of variety of disputes including but not limited to social, economic and political disputes, both local and global. To administer Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Mechanism with Institutional Framework along with long term capacity building programmes that are seeded globally. The services provided by KFCRI are Research and promotion of Institutionalized ADR with State of Art infrastructure, tailor made rules, regulations and execution with diversified trained professionals.

KFCRI provides to set up a Centre for Arbitration, Conciliation, Mediation, and Negotiation with a special focus on mobilizing ADR professionals and Tribunal Secretaries with world class training and accreditation acceptable in various jurisdictions worldwide. KFCRI is dedicated to serve as a platform to all the stakeholders of the economy, who can benefit from the ADR mechanism and to ensure that the intricacies of ADR are taught to all by conducting various awareness programmes, events and much more.

ABOUT THE SEMINAR:

Alternative Dispute Resolution is a mechanism which acts as a substitute for litigation. ADR provides various modes of settlement including, arbitration, conciliation, mediation, negotiation and lok Adalat. Alternate Dispute Resolution is to bring about resolution of disputes between parties, minimize costs and reduce the burden of the courts. In India more than 20 million cases are pending in the courts of India and the use of ADR can reduce the burden on courts. This workshop is with the objective of creating awareness about blending judicial and non-judicial dispute resolution mechanism.

The positives and the effectiveness of mediation and net economic benefit of mediation shall be discussed in this Seminar. The reason and need for mediation as an ADR mechanism shall be purported. The positives and the effectiveness of mediation and net economic benefit of mediation shall also be discussed. The reason and need for mediation as an ADR mechanism shall be purported.
