OFFICIAL INVITATION

We are pleased to announce that the first-ever edition of NLUJ-NHRC Moot Court Competition, 2023 ["Competition"] will be held from October 6-8, 2023. The Competition, being the inaugural edition, aims to nurture awareness and interest in the field of Human Rights Law among students hailing from various law schools across the country. The Competition, like NLUJ's flagship and prestigious Antitrust Moot Court Competition, aims to grow by leaps and bounds, becoming one of the nation's premier moot court competitions in the field of Human Rights Law. The association with the National Human Rights Commission will ensure that the Competition has an exemplary proposition and commendable judging.

Associated Partners

Since the advent of the Protection of Human Rights Act in 1993, the Human Rights Law has proven to be an important and constantly emerging branch of law.

The National Human Rights Commission [NHRC], a standalone entity of the Union Government responsible for the protection and promotion of human rights, has associated itself with the inaugural edition of the Competition and we are certain that the Competition would greatly benefit from its patronage and expertise.

We are also privileged to be associated with SCC Online®, a leading provider of online research services, designed specifically for professionals in law, along with Eastern Book Company, a prominent publication house publishing a wide range of legal commentaries, student texts, law reports and digests, as knowledge and research partners, both industry leaders in the provision of online research services that are tailored specifically for legal professionals, as two of our knowledge and research partners.
