MESSAGE FROM PATRON

Sri Virendrajit Singh
Secretary- VSSD College

Legal education involves not just learning laws and jurisprudence, but also organizing information, articulating reasoning, and arguing for and against problems. Beyond knowledge and communication abilities, this demands a solid commitment and resolute to utilize law as a "Privilege to Serve and a Privilege to Excel". This 1st edition of National Moot Court at VSSD College should urge all team members to study law further and polish their intellect to build the abilities needed for legal grandeur.

Best wishes for the successful organization of this historic event.

विधिक शिक्षा के अंतर्गत केवल कानून और न्याय शास्त्र की समझ और सीख ही नहीं होती बल्कि उसमें सूचना को संयोजित करने, तार्किक क्षमता के विकास और समस्याओं के पक्ष-विपक्ष का विश्लेषण भी समाहित होता है। यह शिक्षा विशिष्ट ज्ञान तथा उत्कृष्ट संवाद क्षमता के साथ ही कानून के प्रति सच्ची प्रतिबद्धता की माँग करती है तथा कानून का उपयोग करते समय यह अपेक्षा रखती है कि इसे 'सेवा के विशेष अवसर' तथा 'उत्कृष्टता हासिल करने के अवसर' के रूप में स्वीकार किया जाए। वी. एस. एस. डी. कॉलेज, कानपुर में आयोजित राष्ट्रीय मूट कोर्ट का पहला सत्र सभी सदस्यों/विद्यार्थियों की विधि के अध्ययन को निरंतरता प्रदान करने तथा विधिक क्षेत्र को सर्वांगपूर्ण बनाने हेतु आवश्यक बौद्धिक क्षमता को निखारने एवं सवारने में प्रेरक होगा।

मैं इस ऐतिहासिक आयोजन की सफलता की कामना करता हूँ ।

MESSAGE FROM PRINCIPAL

Dr. Bipin Chandra
Kaushik
Principal – VSSD College

The primary objective of establishing the Law department is to provide students with superior instruction that will enable them to become successful attorneys, justices, and legal administrators who can work in a variety of contexts. With this as our guiding principle, we will take all possible steps to produce legal intellectuals capable of meeting the requirements of law courts, law firms, the judicial system, business associations, and the education sector. Since there are many appealing avenues in the multifaceted field of legal practice and employment, which includes both Government and non-government sectors, the legal environment has undergone several profound changes. Students are more concerned and knowledgeable about their career options in the current environment. In this revised scenario, we propose instructing and training law students from various cultural, social, and educational backgrounds on a unified platform. With so many prevalent social issues, such as crime against humanity, particularly against women, corruption, and cybercrime, it has become essential to produce outstanding law graduates. We intend to disseminate legal knowledge and equip youthful minds with the ability to analyze and develop solutions to contemporary issues, by organizing symposiums, workshops, moot courts and seminars.

ABOUT BARRISTER NARENDRAJIT SINGH JI

Barrister Narendrajit Singh was born on May 18, 1911, in the prominent social worker Rai Bahadur Shri Vikramjit Singh's home in Kanpur. He received education both in India and abroad. After passing the law examination in London, he became a barrister. He used to argue in Hindi in the courts and improved his Hindi by reading novels of famous authors. He was a specialist in company law, and lawyers from far and wide came to hear his arguments. In 1935, he married Smt. Sushila Ji, the daughter of Diwan Badrinath Ji of Jammu & Kashmir.

In the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS), the role of the head of the family is significant. Barrister Narendrajit Singh devoted his life to this role in Uttar Pradesh. In 1944, he attended a Makar Sankranti celebration as the chief guest for the first time at a Sangh event. In 1945, he was appointed as a departmental head of the RSS, and in 1947, Shri Guruji declared him a Prant Sanghchalak. During the Emergency in 1975, he remained in jail. He was a man of principles. He believed that while politics may have glitz and glamour, serving society beyond that could be even more impactful.

Due to his love for education, several educational institutions were established in Kanpur by this family. In 1921, his father, Shri Vikramjit Singh, founded the "Sanatan Dharma Vani Commerce College" in Kanpur. After that, the family established a series of Sanatan Dharma colleges.

Barrister Sahab held positions in various religious and social organizations at the national and state levels. He passed away on October 31, 1993. Through his behavior, he demonstrated what it means to be the head of a family.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

In the year 1927, the esteemed Department of Law at V.S.S.D. College was established by the honorable Landlord of Nawabganj, Babu Shyamlal Ji, a true pioneer in his time. Following in Babu Shyamlal Ji's footsteps, the late Pandit Kali Shankar Sharma became the principal of VSSD College in 1928 and served for many years. Rai Bahadur K.G. Banerji, former District and Session Judge, succeeded Pandit Kali Shankar Sharma out of compassion for the institution. In his illustrious career, Rai Bahadur K.G. MOOT PROPOSITION

The Asian sovereign state of Namibistan follows the parliamentary form of governance. With its large boundaries and huge population extending up to 150 crore, the state is governed by the principles of rule of law, which are protected by its apex court, the Supreme Court, which also functions as the highest Court of Record for the State.

The Constitution of Namibistan provides certain fundamental rights to its citizens, one of which is contained in Article 21 which states the following- Protection of life and personal liberty- No person shall be deprived of his life or personal liberty except according to procedure established by law.

The Supreme Court has through one of its judgments, broadened the scope of right to life, to include the right to a dignified life and the other rights necessary for living a dignified life within its ambit. In another case Supreme Court has also held privacy to be essential for living a dignified life and thus making right to privacy a Fundamental right.
