— ABOUT JUSTICE V.R.KRISHNA IYER —

Justice V. R. Krishna Iyer (1914–2014) was a pioneering Indian jurist and a stalwart of social justice. Serving as a judge in the Supreme Court of India, his tenure from 1973 to 1980 left an indelible mark on the legal landscape. A champion of human rights, he believed in the judiciary's role as a guardian of the marginalized. Justice Iyer was renowned for his progressive judgments, emphasizing equity and fairness. His legal philosophy advocated for the downtrodden, earning him widespread respect. Beyond the bench, he contributed to legal literature and tirelessly campaigned for prison reforms. His legacy endures as an emblem of judicial activism and compassion.

ABOUT THE COMPETITION

Moot court competition is one of the most exciting activity for law students where students can sharpen their skills for their future practice as lawyers. The purpose of the activity is to help law students understand how real courts function, their code of conduct and the use of formal language. Mooting is a great way to develop one's confidence, research, speaking and writing skills. Participating in moot court is not just great for budding advocates but also for future judges and arbitrators. Most universities hold inter-college and intra-college moot sessions that prepares students for their future endeavours.
